

The illustration features three main characters: a man with a long nose and a wide, toothy grin wearing a blue suit; a woman with long brown hair, wearing a yellow top and a colorful lei, also smiling; and a small brown dog with large ears, wearing a red collar with blue beads. They are all holding a large white sign. The background is a solid red color with some stylized floral elements. The man's legs are visible at the bottom, wearing blue pants and purple shoes. The woman's legs are also visible, wearing yellow sandals. The dog is standing on its hind legs, looking up at the sign.
